Read the passage carefully.

It is a hot summer day. A crow is sitting on the branch of a tree. It is tired and thirsty. It flies here and there. It is looking for water. The crow suddenly sees a jar. It is under a nearby tree. The crow flies to it quickly. The crow flies down to it at last. The crow sits on the edge of the jar. It looks inside the jar. The water is at the bottom of it. The crow looks around. It sees some pebbles near the jar. The crow picks up the pebbles one by one with its beak. Then, it drops them into the jar. The water rises to the brim of the jar. The crow drinks the water.
